   Continued from last meeting.
   Summary: In general, the exam went ok; only two students were not able to complete due to technical issues. Participants received a questionnaire after the exam to evaluate their experience with this exam. So far, the answers seem polarized. Some students found the exam was good and others found it stressful to know, they were maybe watched. The ones who experienced technical problems were not happy.
   More students attended the exam as usual, so it does not seem that students stayed away because of the new form
   Theodor informs, that he had a quick ask around the participants. Also, the results seem polarized.

    Keywords for discussion on this meeting:
   - Is this an exam set up for the future?
   - Would technical proctoring on on-site exams be a possibility, to allow students access to e.g. google during exam?
   - Considerations about the students that get very stressed about technical proctoring of exams.

6. Alignment and workload on 3ʳᵈ semester courses on SWU and some courses on DS.
   Continued from last meeting. Appendix 6A.
   a) Expected workload for students per ECTS per week:
   b) Students feel that the courses are heavily overloaded. Each course takes too much time and the time schedule tilts:
   SAT invite Dan to a one-hour meeting before next meeting, as he cannot participate in the meeting.

7. Study Program Report 2020 for SWU: / Allette, Hearing. Appendix 7A.

8. Study Program Report 2020 for CS: / Marco, Hearing. Appendix 8A.

9. Re-exams and complaints:
   When students complain about an exam, the re-exam take place before the decision of the complaint is due. If students pass at the re-exam and do not want to proceed with the complaint, dealing with the complaint in the meantime has been in vain.
