Minutes:

1. Approval of agenda

The agenda was approved.

2. Information

HoSP & ProCoor

- Play Lab is changing name to Advanced Game Studio to better reflect the updated structure and content.
- TAGS
 - Communication has been difficult. Rune is still awaiting information.
 - Most games this year seem to be from either GAMES or DADIU.
 - Luís (Head of Education) have ok'ed 500 kr. for each team in TAGS for stickers, posters etc.
 - ITU will also be having a booth. Hajo will ask for free tickets for people who man the booth. Will coordinate with student representatives and ask for volunteers through Discord.
 - Feedback from the Employers' Panel: It gives good experience joining these things + show on the portfolio that people go the extra mile with games they make.
- Invitations for DADIU meeting and Semester Meetings (=Town Hall Meetings) will follow soon.
- Winter Games are coming up!
 - The number of participants is fairly small this time – last year 9 submissions, this year only 5. We need to find out the reason for this.
 - Have people prioritized TAGS instead? It shouldn't be a question of choosing - rather see this as a get-2-for-the-price-of-1-deal. There is no such thing as a redundant presentation, and Winter Games is very friendly and low stakes.
 - We need to find a solution if people are intimidated by the thought of participating in Winter Games. Encourage people to watch the event!

- Two cases of students missing their info on time and place for the thesis defense. Apparently, this is due to the latest updates where the calendar is hidden. Rune will look into whether we can do something about this. Might also mention it at the semester meeting for the 2. years.

Students

- People are anxious about the grades for Making Games.
 - Nothing is delayed, but perhaps it would help if they next year got info from the teacher up front on how long they can expect to wait for the grades?

Study Board

- The student representatives will share the seat in the BoS for 2026. Nicolas will take the spring semester, and Krystof the autumn semester.

3. AOB

Nothing for this point.
